FEDERAL AID PROMISED FOR COMBATING THE CATTLE DISEASE

According to word received from Congressman Arthur M. Free in regard to the foot and mouth disease, he has a number of bulletins issued by the Department of Agriculture dealing with the foot and mouth disease, which he will be glad to send to anyone upon application.

Congress has already voted $1,500,000, according to Mr. Free, to take care of this trouble, and arrangements were made this week which will assure the passage next week of a bill appropriating an additional $1,000,000 to be expended, under the direction of the Department of Agriculture, in the control of this disease.

Arrangements have also been made with the Chemical Warfare Division of the U. S. Army to experiment with chlorine gas in an attempt to cure the disease. Several other diseases of aniamls, as well as human beings, have been successfully checked with this treatment. We are assured that everything will be done by Congress and the government departments to assist the cattlemen of California in the control of this terrible disease.

Dr. U. G. Houck, personal representative of Secretary Wallace, upon being informed of the Associated Press dispatch as to his appointment as inspector in charge of eradication work in California, stated:

"I have not received an official communication from Secretary Wallace regarding my appointment as director in charge of the eradication work in California.

"If the press dispatches are so, I can simply state that the work of Director G. H. Hecke and his state officials and that of Dr. Snyder and the federal forces have been so efficient that I can do no better than to carry on the work as they have done.

"I understand that this move has been made at the request of Director Hecke and the Governor, so as to centralize the supervising operations.

"The disease is under the control to the extent that the avenues of spread are known and are being carefully watched and all contaminating hazards figured. We expect further infections, but they should be confined closely to the small infected areas.

"I see no logical reason why the fruit, vegetable and other industries where the production is in non-infected areas should be apprehensive as to the movement of their crops, as I feel that as soon as some other states have the opportunity of securing a true understanding of the situation here, many of the rigid embargoes now enforced will be modified."

The action of neighboring states in placing quarantines on California fruit and vegetable products from non-infected district on the supposition that they may be carriers of foot and mouth disease infection, is not only without precedent, but is without reason or scientific justification.

"I do not know of an instance in any of our previous fights against the foot and mouth disease where an outbreak was traceable to shipments of fruit or vegetables," says Dr. U. G. Houck. "In previous outbreaks, movements of vegetables and fruits were unrestricted except from the actual farms where the disease was known to exist."

There should be no quarantine from any outside state against the movement of such products as fruit and vegetables from the vast sections of California that are free from the disease.

The people of California should join in letting the whole country know that every scientific precaution is being taken by state and federal authorities to eradicate the disease. It has now been isolated within certain definitely known areas and no shipments of any farm products are being made from those districts. Rigid restrictions are being practiced to see that it does not spread. These restrictions are scientific and sane. It is when hysterical quarantine regulations, without the least justification, are put into practice by outside states, that the people of California protest.

Bids Called For Construction Bay Boulevard

The first step toward actual construction of San Francisco's dream of a great commercial highway down the bay shore was taken this week when the California Highway Commission advertised for bids for the grading of the first unit of the Bay Shore highway from South San Francisco to Broadway station, a distance of five and two-tenths miles. The bids will be opened in Sacramento May 19. The first work will be building a grade across the tidelands along the bay front. It will continue to Redwood City, through the Sweeney ranch and connect with the Bay road, near the old Sweeney farm house, continuing then on to Runnymede through the southern part of Palo Alto to San Jose. The construction of this highway means a great deal to this community, affording as it will a third outlet from the city, and relieving the congestion that now hinders and retards the growth of the peninsula. With the present congestion, home seekers hesitate settling here as they are practically barred from the use of the highway to the metropolis. With the completion of the highway and the Dumbarton bridge this community would surely grow.

ATHERTON TRUSTEES REORGANIZE BOARD

At the last meeting of the trustees of the Town of Atherton, held last Monday night for the purpose of canvassing the votes of the recent election in which all the incumbent trustees were returned to office, the reorganization of the board was the main business of the evening. The board was called to order by Chairman Ed Eyre and proceeded to reelect Mr. Eyre as chairman of the board. The next matter taken up was the reappointment of officers of the town and the reappointment of the standing committees.

The chairman then inquired if anyone present had anything to bring before the board, and Messrs. Shearer and White presented plans for two dormatories for the use of ranch hands on their strawberry ranch. The plans were referred to Building Inspector Weeden who stated that he had refused a permit for the same plans before because they did not confirm to the ordinance. After considerable discussion of the matter, the board ruled that Shearer and White must conform to the ordinance before any permit will be issued to them. The whole matter was placed in the hands of the building inspector who will approve the plans when they are made to comply with the building ordinance.

WAREHOUSES PLANNED FOR THE DUMBARTON DISTRICT

The Southern Pacific Railroad Company is about to lay a number of spur tracks into Dumbarton Oaks from the transbay railroad that crosses at or near that point. It is said that large warehouses are to be built there. Who is to build them or what they are for no one appears to know. The whole matter appears to be wrapped in mystery. The railroad company will give out no information, but it is certain that the enterprise will be a big one.

SHORTRIDGE COUNTERS TEA WITH ARTICHOKES

Senator Shortridge went the Japanese propagandists one better Thursday. A few days before the House passed the Immigration bill with its exclusion feature, someone distributed large packages of Japanese tea to every congressman. It was something new. To counteract the "influence" of the tea, Senator Shortridge fed the senators on California artichokes Thursday. He sent several cases of the very best artichokes to the Senate restaurant with the instructions to the manager to serve one to each Senator without charge. These artichokes were raised in San Mateo county, the Senators home county of which Senator Shortridge is justly proud.

LOCAL ATTORNEY ENJOYS MEDITERANEAN TRIP

Lee Ross of the firm of Ross and Ross, who returned last week from a six weeks' trip to the various ports of the Mediteranean Sea, reports having had a most pleasant voyage. Mr. Ross stopped in Italy and speaks with pleasure of trips along the coast of the blue Mediterranean, especially a ride along the Amalfi drive on the gulf of Solerno.

In Egypt the party of which the local attorney was a member, was deprived of the pleasure of entering the tomb of King Tut, owing to litigation into which the property has been thrown, other tombs were visited, however, and the articles removed from the tomh of the famous Egytian were viewed.

Mr. Ross found great inspiration in a journey to the Holy Land, where every rock and valley recalls a passage of scripture. The stories of the guides, however, must not be taken too seriously, according to the local traveler, whose credulity was severely taxed by some of the accounts.

While in Africa Mr. Ross visited Cairo and Luxor and then visited for a while in Algeria. From here he went to Constantinople. It was while the party was here that the overthrow of the government took place, and the second son of the sultan of Turkey joined the ship at Constantinople, and sailed for taly, where the climate was considered more healthful by the once royal family.

Miss Shelley, whose seventy-fifth birthday occurs on the 30th of this month, was the guest of honor and the recipient of a surprise shower from other members. The various articles were presented to Miss Shelley by Mrs. Caroline Woodhams, who also read the following original poem:

The years that swiftly pass away
And leave us older day by day,
That turn our hair from gold to gray,
And make us grave instead of gay,
Are not so harsh, if we but view
The way they've touched our friend so true.
Her warm handclasp—it blesses you;
Her kindly word—it gladdens, too;
Her eyes, no passing time can dim,
Her mind is full of youth and vim,
No faltering step or weakening limb
Her smile—a benediction hymn;
No falseness in her nature lies—
Her love is that which never dies.
No meanness, pettiness, she tries
To leave but good, as each year flies,
And so, today we gather here
To bring a little bit of cheer
To celebrate the birthday near,
Of our true friend, Miss Shelly, dear.

The following program was given under the direction of Mrs. Eugene Pfafflin: Vocal solo by Miss Meryl Blomquist, accompanied by Miss Margaret Holmquist; Easter dialogue by four Endeavor girls—Elsie Teague, Fern McCrean, Louise Bendeatch and Hazel Dolley; violin solo by Clifton Woodhams, Jr.; whistling solo by Miss Florence Rue, accompanied by Miss Margaret Holmquist, pianist; piano solo by Professor Richards.

Mrs. C. I Rider, president of the Ladies Circle and Mrs. F. E. George past president of the organization, acted as hostesses for the occasion. Mrs. D. W. Williams prepared the table.

FIRE DEPARTMENT PRAISED BY INSURANCE ADJUSTER

Charles A. Stewart, adjuster of the Great American Fire insurance Company, who was in Redwood City this week inspecting the damage which had been caused by the fire which threatened the total destruction of the Wahl building last week, spoke in glowing terms of the local fire department. Redwood City has the most efficient and best equipped fire fighting squad of any town of its size I have ever visited," he said, "in fact the department here would do credit to a city many times the size of Redwood City."

In commenting upon the fire last week, Mr. Stewart said, "The only factor which prevented the spread of the flames to other buildings and saved the entire business district, was the systematic means of fire fighting used by Chief Ryan and his men." The gallant service of the fire department in preventing the spread of the flames and saving almost the whole building has been the subject of favorable comment from all quarters. The expression of appreciation of Mr. Stewart is, however, not to be underrated, as he, in his work as fire insurance adjuster, is in constant contact with the work of the fire departments in almost every town, and he speaks from a broad back ground of experience. The statements of Mr. Stewart were entirely unsolicited and were made voluntarily in appreciation of the work done by the Redwood City department.

LABOR ORGANIZATION FAVORS HIRAM JOHNSON

At a meeting of the building trades council this week that organization went on record as unanimously favoring the candidacy of Hiram Johnson for president. The following is a part of a telegram sent to C. K. McClatchy of Sacramento by the Johnson Club of this county:

"It would be a most shameful thing if we of California, should forget the leader who fearlessly lead the fight in California for humanity—for womanhood—for childhood—for the people—the fight that placed California in the proud place as the most progressive state in the Union. We would be unworthy of the high regard in which California is held throughout the nation if the unscrupulous agents of re-election in the state succeed in repudiating him now.

Acute pneumonia resulted in the sudden death this week of Miss Julia Cirner, 22-year-old daughter of George Cirner, an employee of the Frank Tanning Company. An inquest was held over the body in the chapel of Layng & Tinney last Monday, at which t ime the cause of death was found to be pneumonia. The funeral took place on the following day from Mt. HENRY BEEGER HEADS TRUSTEES

Last Monday evening's meeting of the board of trustees was largely occupide by the reorganization of the board of trustees, as all incumbent members of the board were reelected without opposition. The board was called to order and preceeded to elect Trustee Henry Beeger chairman of the board of the board for the next two years to succeed Trustee McNulty, who has served in that capacity for the last two years, and who in retiring thanked his associates for the support they had given him during that time.

The new board was called to order by Chairman Beeger and proceeded to reappoint the necessary standing committees.

Before its adjournment sine die, the old board proceeded with a number of matters, the first to be taken up being the granting of a number of dance permits, and it was here stated by the board and unanimously agreed to be written into the ordinance regulating dance permits, that no more dance permits will be granted for three o'clock dances. One three o'clock permit was granted to the Native Sons for a dance in the Foresters' hall tonight. This was only granted, however, because a permit had previously been granted to the Order of Owls for a three o'clock dance in the I. O. O. F. hall on the same night, and the board did not wish to be descrimatory. A number of other dance permits were granted, but tail for 1 o'clock dances.

Bids were received and read for the purchase of a deep well pump and the contract was let to Campbell and Budlong, their bid of $1,011.74 being the lowest.

Other matters were passed upon by the board chief among them being a suggestion by Trustee Monteith, to the effect that a campaign to have the allies and back yards of the city cleaned up, be started. Trustee Ryan told of the experience of the fire department in its attempt to accomplish results last year. The matter was finally referred to the fire department, who will make an effort to have conditions improved.

FIRE DEPARTMENT CALLED TO SAVE BURNING CAR

The amphibous ambitions of a small, but well known car were sadly shaken last Wednesday night, when in an attempt to reach the ocean by means of Redwood creek, it turned over after leaving the bridge on Brewster street, near the Fox-McNulty lumber yard.

The car lay placidly on its back in the mud. and four men who were occupying it, crawled out of the water. One of the men desiring to see what had happened, as it was dark, struck a match. The match had hardly been lit, when the gasoline fumes from the inverted car which were copiously mixed with alcoholic fumes from the occupants, flared up and soon the whole car was a mass of flames.

An alarm brought the fire department, who got the fire under control, and the police department, exerted themselves with the occupants of the car The wrecked machine was draged out of the creek by a local garage man who was summoned, and three of the passengers were hailed in the jail, the fourth escaped.

Of the men, the driver, J. T. Madden of Merced, is now being held preliminary to a trial for driving while intoxicated. J. V. Peterson paid a fine of $25 for illegal transportation of liquor and the third member of the party paid a fine of $20 for possession of liquor.

HARBOR DEVELOPMENTS

Supervisor R. J. Welch of San Francisco has launched a plan for the development of all of the water front from Hunter's Point to Dumbarton. Thousands of acres of marsh land in San Mateo county would be reclaimed under the proposition and Redwood City would be in the very center of one of the greatest industrial areas in the country.

Colonel Herbert Deakyne, superintendent of the government engineering commission, has completed the survey of the section and has given a comprehensive report on the possibilities of the project. Col Deakyne has submitted his proposal to Washington for the dredging of a deep water channel to Ravenswood which would allow crafts of all tonnage to anchor in any part of the bay. It is well known that the bay frontage now owned by the Alaska Codfish Company at the mouth of Redwood Creek is one of the deepest and safest harbor sites on San Francisco bay and with the proposed channel assured other interests would come to our section because of wharfage facilities.

We believe that this section of California is just beginning a forward movement which will result in the influx of hundreds of new families into Redwood City and vicinity.

Now is the time to "Watch Redwood City Grow!"

REDWOOD CITY'S BIG DAY

In the by-gone days, April 26th was the great big day of the year. The Odd Fellows' picnic brought people from all over the county. At ten o'clock the Odd Fellows lined up in front of their hall which was over John Titus' blacksmith shop. Jim Hilton fired an anvil, the band began to play and the line of march started for Finger's picnic grounds.

Everybody in town was there and from 7 o'clock on the rigs from mountains and the coast passed along the way and each owner sought a convenient fence post to which he could tie the team. There was a good chance that there would be a runaway, but that all added to the excitement. Everybody knew everybody else, and everybody was happy.

When the band arrived at the grounds, a speech was made, sometimes it was Judge Buck or perhaps it was Henry Hall. Then the dancing was commenced. Old man Underhill sold candy and popcorn, while under the music stand all kinds of drinks of the pre-volstedian age were dispensed with the greatest liberality, and many a schooner, long and brown, went over the bar in those good old days of yore.

At noon time everybody and his neighbor got out the lunch box. The roast chickens were bigger and more numerous in those times than they are now—and the jelly cake and ginger snaps and pie, and everything was there in such profusion that the dancing was loggy for an hour afterwards.

Dan Stafford or Mickey Thompson usually won the race for the boys; next came the tug of war and then more dancing. Then as the twilight descended we all went home—tired and happy. We all looked forward to Odd Fellows Picnic. "Them was the days" in Redwood. We wish the picnic was going to be today and that for once it could be just like an old-time event. Everybody knew everybody else then and everybody liked everybody else and everybody was happy on the 26th of April in those good old days of yore.

GO TO IT "BRICK"

A man in Menlo Park was recently arrested for selling bootleg whiskey to high school boys. He will soon be tried for the offense. If convicted he will probably be fined a heavy fine and perhaps sent to jail. When he gets out he will probably go back and make up the amount of the fine in a few weeks and start some other boys on the road to perdition. The boys may not be permanently injured as to character but its within the range of possibility to think there may be some feusel oil left in the concoction and then bingo, its the six-foot box or worse still, blindness, for the one who drinks the whiskey.

This doesn't sound good but such things frequently happen. We believe that any man who is convicted of selling intoxicants to minors should be so severely punished that he will never dare to repeat the offense. Confiscation of property and imprisonment for a term of years should be the penalty. It's bad enough to sell the stuff to men, but it's infinitely worse to peddle it to boys.

Here's hoping that Tom McGovern will be successful in his determination to catch all the bootleggers in San Mateo county.

THE KIWANIS CLUB

The Kiwanis Club was started in Redwood City Tuesday. Thirty-six men signed the petition for a charter and promisde to be loyal Kiwanians. This means that they will try to give a greater degree of "service" to their community than they have given in the past. They will be bound together by closer ties of friendship. Each one will cultivate the first name habit. There will be no misters, but they will call each other Tom or Dick or Harry.

While they eat they will talk and visit and sing. Politics are taboo. We believe that this is a big start for better things in Redwood City.

Kiwanis gives people something to do for as the adage goes, "The secret of happiness is something to do," and the spirit of service is Happiness so— Success to Kiwanis in Redwood City.

THE ARGENTINE ANT

With the return of spring has come, as though it were ordained that our blessing should not go unalloyed, the return of that unmitigated pest of the household, the Argentine ant. One of the smallest of the family of Hymenoptera, the Argentine ant has proved itself the most destructive of any of the family which are found in this state. The Argentine ant is almost entirely a meat-eating insect, and in this fact lies the reason of a great part of its destructive work in the pantry where all manner of meat products are subjected to it. But not alone in the house is its presence objectional, for instances are abundant where this ant has been known to eat young chickens alive; where it has eaten the eyes out of setting hens, and even where neglected babies have been attacked by its ravages. The wild birds of this section are threatened with extermination because of its attackes upon the young in the nests.

Several poisons are now upon the market, and some measure should be taken immediately to check the mutlplication of this pest. One ant killed now may prevent hundreds after the breeding season. To combat the ants now is a large order, but as they reappear in greater numbers every year, it stands to reason that there is no time like the present, for if neglected, the pest of Argentine ants bids fair to exterminate all other forms of animal life, if they increase in the future in the same proportion in which they have in the past.

SUPERVISORS HEAR PLANS FOR PARK

The matter of preparing the San Mateo Memorial Park for the big opening day and dedication on July 4th occupied the greater portion of the attention of the board of supervisors at the regular meeting last Monday. A lengthy report from Forest Inspector Fowler was read by the committee of the American Legion appointed to make plans for the dedication. In his report Fowler makes a number of suggestions in regard to the fire protection necessary within the park.

Chairman Thompson announced that according to County Auditor Shields, there was in the treasury only $2000 available for expenditure on the new park. The commission was instructed to proceed with the work and have as much accomplished as could be done with the funds available.

In regard to the clearing of the underbrush from among the trees and clearing out the slashings left after the cutting of the tan oak, Chairman Thompson was authorized to accept a bond from a Pescadero contractor who will undertake to perform the work.

Bids were opened for the electrical wiring of the poor farm, and the contract was awarded to Mark Ryan for $1,600. Ryan's bid was the only one presented.

A communication was received from the State Department of Agriculture, in regard to the hoof and mouth epizootic which is making serious inroads into the cattle industry of this state. In this letter the department called attention to action taken by other counties for the prevention of the disease. The matter was referred to District Attorney Swart, who maintained that the ordinance passed at the previous meeting of the board was sufficient to cover the situation, and that no further ordinances were necessary.

An appointment was made to the advisory committee of the San Mateo County Community Hospital. Charles Vandenbos of San Mateo was appointed to succeed William Crocker who resigned.

A few claims which were laid over from the previous meeting were passed, and a report received from the county veterinarian.

Maybe operating a car isn't much more expensive than having to stay at home and entertain visitors as they did in the old days.

Civilization may be on the down grade, but at least we have learned lately not to be shocked by things that are not shocking.

Talk may be cheap but nearly every aged millionaire knows that letters are expensive.

Cleaning Without Odor by the
F. Thomas Process
Our many years of experience has taught us that it is impossible to do perfect cleaning with cheap, inferior methods. That is why we found it necessary to invest nearly $500,000 in the equipment of a plant and the establishment of an expert organization to do the quality of work demanded by our customers.
With the "F. Thomas Process" we not only remove every particle of dust but we return your garments without that usual disagreeable smell of gasoline. Every drop of gasoline we use in cleaning is redistilled and very highly refined.
Raw gasoline—the kind that you buy for your automobile—is full of heavy oils and unfit for cleaning fabrics. It is little better than ordinary distillate and leaves a sickening "gasoline" smell in your clothes

ICE NEEDED FOR FOOD PRESERVATION

More and more modern science is exposing the fallacies in our daily lives—and even correcting them. The old oaken bucket, celebrated in song and sentiment, has been shown up as an excellent congregating place for germs, and has been replaced by the more sanitary, if less romantic, drinking fountain.

The old fashioned window cooler is likewise gradually disappearing. Once, it was imagined that food could be preserved so long as it kept cool. Now, we know that is must not only be kept cool, but at a constant temperature—less than forty-five degrees. Rapid temperature changes are as much to blame for spoiled food, as heat.

This is true for the following reason: The cause of food spoilage is bacteria. These bacteria are dormant in any temperature below forty-five degrees. But just as soon as the temperature goes higher than that, they become active. Even when the thermometer touches this danger point but a hour or two during the day, some damage is done. Often this damage is not apparent to the taste or smell, but analysis reveals that much of the nutritive value of the food is lost.

Says Dr. Evans, noted health authority of Chicago: "Food keeps very well when the temperature of the food compartment is forty-five degrees. When the temperature is sixty degrees, milk spoils before the bottle is emptied."

In view of this, it is not difficult to imagine what happens to food stuffs which are not protected by ice during these changeable spring days. Another bad feature of the window cooler is the fact that it is open to the air, and permits dust and dirt to come in contact with the food.

NEWS OF MENLO PARK

The many friends of Mrs. John MacBain will be pleased to learn that she is improving at her apartments in Mills Memorial hospital, San Mateo, and will shortly be convalescent.

Bishop Glass of Salt Lake City, Utah, will shortly confer orders on several young men at St. Patrick's seminary. Archbishop who usually performs this ceremony left this week for Rome to visit the pope.

The death of Judge Hunt in San Francisco this week recalls the tall and slender figure of the noted jurist who spent his week ends in Menlo Park in the days of long ago when he was young and a budding lawyer and before he gained fame on the bench. The late Colonel Harney was his brother-in-law and he had an attractive home not far from the highway, near the San Francisquito creek. Afterwards it became the property of the late P. M. Partridge. The judge spent all his leisure time here taking a delight and securing inspiration from the beautiful gardens. After the sale of the Harney home, Mr. Hunt visited here only at intervals. He had been a superior judge of San Francisco for forty-one years, and only retired three years ago. He was an honest and just judge.

Daniel Regan, the aged pioneer who died at St. Catherine's Home at Fruitvale, Oakland, on Monday last, was buried in Holy Cross cemetery on Wednesday. The remains were laid alongside those of his wife who predeceased him two years ago. Both sleep peacefully close to the scenes of their younger years and where life's golden hours were passed with happy associates and pleasant companions. Mr. Regan, who had passed his ninetieth year, came to Menlo Park from the mines in the sixties. He was an expert gardener, working for the wealthy residents here for a great many years, retiring from active work ten years ago with a competency that enabled him to pass his remaining years in contentment and happiness. Mr. Regan was a prominent figure in Menlo Park for over half a century, having always the esteem and respect of his fellow townsmen. In 1915 he sold his domicile on Glenwood avenue and with his wife entered the home to spend their days in quiet and peace in spiritual surroundings and in an atmosphere of religion with the good sisters who administered to their every want. The death of Mrs. Regan was a severe blow to the surviving spouse. Mr. Regan awaited patiently for the day when he could rejoin his wife in that other and better world beyond, where there would be no more parting, and where they would enjoy celestial bliss for all eternity. He appeared happy when that day approached, fearing not the shadows of the valley, which he was about to enter. A few friends from here visited him a short time before he passed away. Calmly he bid them a last farewell, saying he would see them no more on earth. He knew he was about to "Give up the Ghost" and appeared to welcome the Reaper, and was thoroughly prepared when the summons came. Mr. Regan was the last of his race, the last of a sturdy class who were noted in Ireland, his birthplace, for their bravery, fidelity to their faith and country. Mr. Regan possessed these traits to a marked degree.

W. D. Packwood, the grocer, passed away at the Mills Memorial hospital Thursday after a severe attack of diabetes from which he had been suffering for several days.

A food sale will be held on May 3 by the alumni of St. Joseph's school. The building selected as the scene of the sale is the vacant building next to W. J. Murrays.

Captain Fritz Olsen, president of the Norwegian-American Steamship Company, has sold his home to Ira S. Lillick, the well-known San Francisco attorney with offices in the Mills building. The place during the war was known as the defenders club and was used by the soldiers and their guests. Olsen recently gained some notoriety in a sensational divorce suit in San Francisco.

Get your home-made bread, cakes and pies at the Woman's Exchange today. Mrs. Kurtz, the proprietor, will have an unusually large display of good things today.

Last Saturday afternoon a fire started in the kitchen of the home of Mr. C. Maloney on Pine street. The culinary department was partly destroyed by the flames when the fire department arrived, and put out the blaze. The water from the hose partly ruined some of the furniture in a few of the rooms. The department did good work. The loss is covered by insurance. The flames started from the gas stove in the kitchen.

The attractive home of George W. Brooks, the well-known insurance man, in Menlo Oaks was sold this week, to Mrs. Crosby of San Francisco, who will take possession of the home next week. The sale was made by E. B. Hinds, the realty broker. Mr. Brooks contemplates a tour of Europe shortly. Mrs. Brooks passed away last year and for that reason Mr. Brook did not care to open the place this season.

Mrs. F. I. Kurtz entertained the members of the Companions of the Forest at her home Tuesday evening. The gathering was the by-weekly meeting of the society. Cards were indulged until a late hour when delightful refreshments were served. Mrs. Kurtz was assisted in entertaining the guests by her young daughter, Myra.

Mrs. Macondray Moore and Miss Inez Macondray write glowing accounts of their travels in Europe. Since their arrival, until last week, they were in France, first visiting in Paris, where many of the Californians have been enjoying the spring, and more recently in the south of France. The last letters told that Mrs. Moore and her niece were enroute to Florence, where they expected to pass the first weeks in April. They were in Rome for the Easter festivities and immediately afterwards they returned to Paris for another brief stay. Mrs. Moore expects to sail for home some time in June, but her plans are still a trifle indefinite, as there is much to see and many persons to visit before their schedule is completed.

RAVENSWOOD P.-T. A. NOTES

Mrs. Frank B. Duneneck of Palo Alto spoke on "Child Labor" at the monthly meeting of the Ravenswood Parent-Teacher Association meeting in the school auditorium on April 11th. Mrs. Duneneck cited examples of child labor in this and other states and urged the Parent-Teacher Association to work toward the abolishment of it.

The following officers were elected for the new term; Mrs. Thomas H. Armstrong, president; Mrs. C. W. Converse, first vice-president; Mrs. George B. Merwin, second vice-president; Mrs. Victor Harding, secretary; Mrs. J. H. Stubbe, corresponding secretary; Mrs. Verle Brewbaker, treasurer; Mrs. J. B. Maynard, parlimentarian; Mrs. A. E. Albertson, auditor; and Mrs. Joseph H. Wickstrom, historian.

Mrs. Dora Crosby announced that the Girl Scouts of the Ravenswood school district are each to contribute one pound of candy for the candy booth at the May festival in Palo Alto.

A letter of thanks was voted John Dudfield of the Dudfield Lumber Company of Palo Alto for the donation of six benches for use by the children on the school grounds.

The last paper drive in the community netted $9.12.

The program included violin solos by Walter and Maxine Hoffman.

FIRE DEPARTMENT CALLED TO HAY STACK FIRE

A fire which destroyed a small stack of hay, which had recently been stacked at the corner of Hyde and the Crescent in Wellesley Park, last Wednesday, caused the fire department to answer a call from box 24. The flames were extinguished before the fire had time to spread to the surrounding hay.

Those who will dance must pay the saxophonists.

SAN CARLOS ITEMS

Mrs. A. M. Planks recently visited with Mr and Mrs. B. Shields of San Francisco.

Mrs. M. Herrick of Walla Walla, Washington, mother of Mrs. W. L. Kneeley, is visiting with her daughter at her home on Magnolia avenue.

Mrs. Jack Kelly entertained Mrs. V. Scott at her home on Magnolia avenue over the week end.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Dod visited friends in San Francisco on Sunday.

The Sanitary Board of San Carlos held a meeting on Monday evening for the purpose of discussing sewerage for the new tract of land opened here.

Mr. and Mrs. A. Dennary and children spent Tuesday evening at Teddy's restraunt in San Francisco in honor of the birthday party of Jack Walsh.

Mrs. Anna Dennery, Miss Catherine Keyser, Bill Lewis, Jack Welsh were visitors here Sunday.

Mrs. E. Wilson of Cherry street entertained friends and relatives over the Easter holidays.

The tickets for a card party and dance Saturday evening, April 26th, at 6:30 by the Boy Scouts of San Carlos are selling very rapidly and a much better crowd is looked forward to than at the last card party they gave.

Mrs. Effie Mahaney is chairman of arrangements and with her assistance a very successful affair is looked for.

Mrs. D. L. Stewart rendered two very beautiful solos at the Easter services.

Dr. and Mrs. J. G. Null entertained friends at their home on Cypress avenue thisweek.

Mrs. B. Fanning and Mrs. W. E. Roemer, mother and sister of Mrs. J. M. Edling, were visitors at the Edling home on Wednesday.

J. Tillman of San Mateo was a visitor in town on Wednesday.

Frank S. Quinn, inspector for the State Motor Vehicle Department, met with a slight accident on his way to Sacramento on Monday morning, when his motorcycle skidded on the wet pavement caused by a passing ice cream truck. His injuries, however, consisted only of a badly bruised knee and arm, and after medical attention he was able to resume his journey.

YOUR patronage has confirmed our confidence in Redwood City and vicinity. One year ago today we opened our doors, anticipating your trade. Electric Refrigerators
Clean-Cold-Convenient

ELECTRICAL refrigeration automatically provides a clean, dry and healthful cold—a combination which gives constant sanitation, continued purity and sweetness to all foods.

An electric refrigerator adds to the list of dainty desserts which may easily be prepared. The trays that make small cubes of ice for table use will also freeze salads, frappe fruit juices, soups, creams, and custards.

Electrical refrigeration is economical and modern—always clean, cold and convenient.

For the farm home, country club, pleasure resort—electric refrigerators supply a much desired necessity.
